4. As regards No. 14, provision in the Budget for restoration of temples & monuments of archæological importance, the procedure followed is that in case of Muzrai institutions which are of architectural interest, the cost of repairs will be met from the funds of the institutions concerned divided / received from the Anti-Cow Fund & the Muzrai Department. The estimate for the restoration is attended to by the P.W.D. So far the restoration of architectural buildings whether Muzrai or Waqf, as such, has funds will have to be provided in the Budget & the Muzrai Department has been invited to submit a scheme for the same so far.

11. Has not a person been [illegible] in the P.W.D. Budget? The Case worker dealing with Archaeology in Edn. & Local Branch must be able to see this.

26.8.25

12. The Case-worker in the Edn. Branch states that there is a provision of Rs 1000/- in the P.W.D budget for the preservation of Ancient monuments, which is distributed among the 8 districts. Even this must have been included in the provision under some other [illegible] in the P.W.D, as no provision under the heading Preservation of ancient monuments" is found as Muzrai institutions are concerned there is not much difficulty because besides the funds of the institutions there is a sum of Rs 10000 out of State funds & Rs 10000 as ~~from~~ Interest Earnings of the Devt. Gen. Endowments Fund. As regards non-Muzrai institutions, although Govt have made a small provision of Rs 1000 as promised the provision is quite inadequate. But the matter does not lie within the purview of the Muzr Dept. Submitted as per para 8 supra.
